Washington, May 7.

President Truman said in a speech here to-night that the United States would fall into the Soviet trap if it spread war in East Asia to the detriment of weakening its relations with its Allies in Europe. London, May 7. Total exports from Hongkong to China in the first quarter of 1951 were about HK$43,000,000 against about HK$91,000,-000 in the same period last year, it was disclosed by the President of the Board of Trade, Sir Hartley Shawcross in the House of Commons today.

Sir Hartley also stated that no petrol products, aircraft or munitions had been sent to China. Since March 31 no tyres for heavy vehicles had been licensed for export to China. Controls had also been imposed on most types of iron and steel manufac-

COMMENT OF THE DAY MacArthur Disprove Figures

MENERAL MacArthur's opinions Tabout Hongkong's trade with Communist China which he advanced before the Joint Congressional Investigating Committee last week, normally, would be unimportant. His generalised treatment of what is supposed to be a key point in the issues between Western Democracy and Communist aggression in the Far East is sufficient to condemn the testimony as merely an effort to bolster up MacArthur's theme that his views on how the military and political conflict in Korea should be resolved are right, and all others wrong. As we have observed, ordinarily his views could be dismissed with some tolerance. But it happens that General MacArthur is receiving a world-wide at this time: that a lot of people are hanging on his words with bated breath and are in an emotional and mental state to accept everything he has to say as being sacrosanct and irrefutable. Herein lies the danger, Gullibility begets loss of perspective and creates distortion. Thus, when General MacArthur talks about the "constant flow of strategic materials, from Hongkong to Communist China" he strives to build up (and in the US apparently with some success) the vision of this Colony freely supplying Red China with most of the materials essential to her current war effort. This is ludicrous: firstly because Hongkong has itself been cut off from the main source of most strategic materials in consequence of the United States embargo; secondly because we are operating our own re-export restrictions. Moreover they are effective, as can quickly be seen by turning from the generalised to the particular. We quote:

dealings with the China mainland in commodities which can be classified as strategic. In December last we exported to China 91,000 piculs of scrap iron and steel; in March of this year the total was 76,000 piculs. Exports of unrefined copper and scrap in December were. 395 piculs, and in March 68 piculs. Copper and alloys fell from 4,546 piculs in December to 616 piculs two months ago. Cement decreased from 144,000 piculs to 16,000; caustic soda from 10,000 piculs to 1,700; rubber tyres from 12,000 to 7,600 and gunny bags from 1,200,000 pieces to 400,000. This demonstrates that General MacArthur's "constant flow" has, in fact, become a mere trickle which could not begin to help the Communists' war effort. Unquestionably attempts are being made to develop a smuggling trade in restricted and prohibited commodities and materials, but there have been sufficient apprehensions and confiscations to justify the claim that the vigilance of the Hongkong authorities is far more effective than the smugglers' operations. We do not pretend that our system is immaculate, any more than can the _Japanese,_ under SCAP authority, claim that their trading with the China mainland is beyond reproach. But we are making a genuine and effective contribution towards depriving the Chinese Communists of substantial quantities of strategic materials by restrictions and prohibitions voluntarily imposed, and for this we deserve, not misrepresentation by ill-informed chatterers, but appreciation by responsible public opinion—especially in the United States. General MacArthur is hardly the person to guide and mould that opinion regarding the following comparative figures to trading, or any other relations, between show how Hongkong is restricting its

BEAT SOUTH CRUCIAL "B" DIVISION MATCH AT TAI HANG

By "ARGONAUT"

In an exemplary exhibition of sportsmanship and tennis prowess, Chinese Recreation Club "1" avenged their defeat at the hands of South China in last year's final by defeating the Champions by 61/2 sets to 21/2 in yesterday's crucial Men's "B" Division match at Tai Hang.

The Tai Hang club fielded a hundred percent "B" team and were suitably rewarded not only with a tennis victory but a triumph in sportsmanship.

Mainly responsible for CRC's win were the youthful combination of Chung Yue-to, the Colony Schoolboys' Singles runner-up and Choy Tin-kin. Playing headsup aggressive tennis, featured by forceful volleys and deadly overhead smashes, the youngsters swept through all their three sets in convincing style.

SOVIET RUSSIA MAY NOW TAKE PART IN OLYMPIC

Vienna, May 7. Soviet Russia was today admitted to the International Olympic Committee at the Committee's Congress here. Thirty-one members of the IOC voted in favour of Soviet Russia's application for membership, it was officially announced tonight.

There were three abstentions. The nations absteining were not named. The Chairman of the newly-formed Soviet Olympic Committee, M. Constantin Adrianov, was elected a member of the International Committee. M. Otto Meyer, the IOC Secretary-General, said that M. Adrianov had given every assurance required by the IOC, including one that Soviet athletes would not be given cash awards in future.

The Soviet member thanked the IOC for admitting his country to membership,

CLEAR INDICATION

Russia was the only major nation which had stood outside the Olympic movement. Her application for admission clearly meant that she wanted to take part in the Olympic Games, the next of which are the Winter Olympics in Oslo next February.

Her neighbour, Finland, holds the Summer Olympiad the following July.

The other countries to be admitted to the IOC today were Nigeria and the Gold Coast. Chinese-owned Ki Ming, was israel was admitted in principle.

M. Mayer said that the IOC Executive Committee had noted that there were two different Olympic bodies in Israel. A Guineas' win. condition of acceptance was that there should be only one.

The two Israeli bodies were told to get together. When they had done this and given the IOC assurances that they would adhere to the Olympic ideal that there be no distinction of they could be admitted formally and would be able to compete

STANLEY MATTHEWS YOU WHAT IT FEELS LIKE WAITING FOR

Stanley Matthews, who has represented England 63 times in international matches, has yet to win a Cup-winner's medal. When Blackpool lost this year's final to Newcastle United by two goals to nil at Wembley, it was Stanley's second miss in three years.

The medal was the one that Matthews wanted most of all to round out one of the most brilliant careers in English League football. Of the seven weeks before the final, he says, "The only thing I hated was the waiting,"

"Only six more days to go- away? just another flood of sympathy player than the older heads. ... "Bad luck, Stan -IF only soand-soft..."

For many of us Saturday will be the greatest day of our lives. Cup bug gets you. In the first I have played 63 times for England, but I would cheerfully steriffice half of those henders for this second chance of play-

The mobilisation chief appeared as lead-off witness before the Senate Banking Committee in opening the Administration fight to extend and strengthen Federal inflation controls.

Even before Mr Wilson testified, the Committee, meeting behind closed doors, at least month, temporarily sidetracked President Harry Truman's proposal for rent controls on stores, office space and other commercial properties.

Chairman Maybank (De-mocrat, South Corolina) told newsment the question will be question will be left until the end of the hearings if it is taken up at all.
